The Department of Agriculture has evidence that on or about July 28, 2010 - April 12, 2010 you or your organization committed the following violation of Federal Regulations:

9 CFR, SECTION

Failure to

2.40 (b)(3)

- Establish and maintain adequate veterinary care programs that include the use of appropriate methods to prevent, control, diagnose, and treat diseases and injuries, and the availability of emergency, weekend, and holiday care.

(A female Bichon identified as "Bertha" has hair caked to her legs and chest area. Closer observation of the dog revealed the right front canine tooth was completely pulled out of the root and attached only by the gum. The dog urinated on the floor a dark yellow color of thick consistency.)

3.2 (d)

- Make indoor housing facilities and any other surfaces in contact with animals impervious to moisture.

(Some of the paneling on the floor of the new building is missing which is exposing wood that is not sealed on the floor.)

3.11 (c)

- Keep premises where housing facilities are located, including buildings and surrounding grounds clean and in good repair to protect the animals from injury, facilitate husbandry practices, reduce or eliminate breeding and living areas for rodents and other pests and vermin.

(The area around the outside dog enclosure has excess wire mesh material stacked directly adjacent the enclosure and excess string material and wood piled up in the area. There is weed growth around the edge of the area and pine needles drooping in and around the enclosure. There is an accumulation of feces underneath the enclosure.)

Titles 7 & 9 Code of Federal Regulations were promulgated to help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases and assure the humane treatment of animals. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impact detrimental to the public interest, you are warned of this violation. Any further violation of these regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty or criminal prosecution. If you have any questions concerning this warning or violation, please contact the listed APHIS Official.
